Worksheets for children in libraries

① Colour in and count all the books that the robot is offering the children to read.

DEAR CHILDREN,

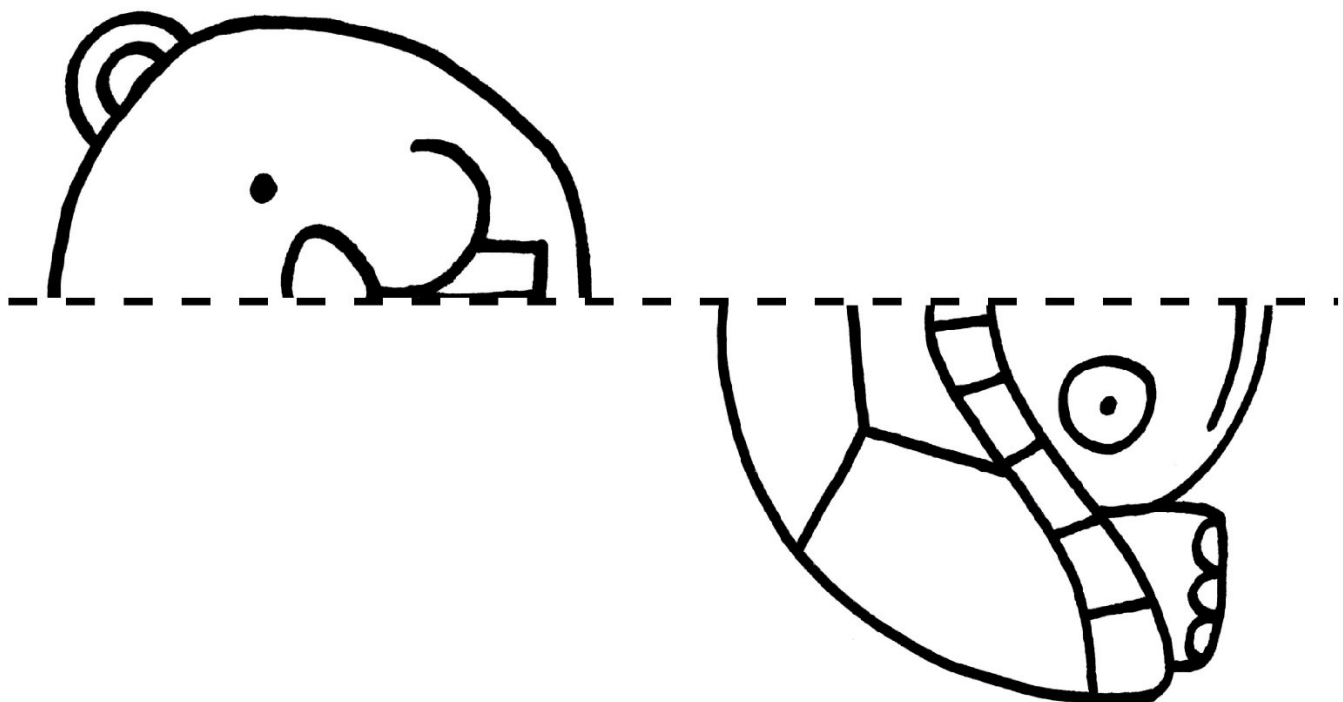

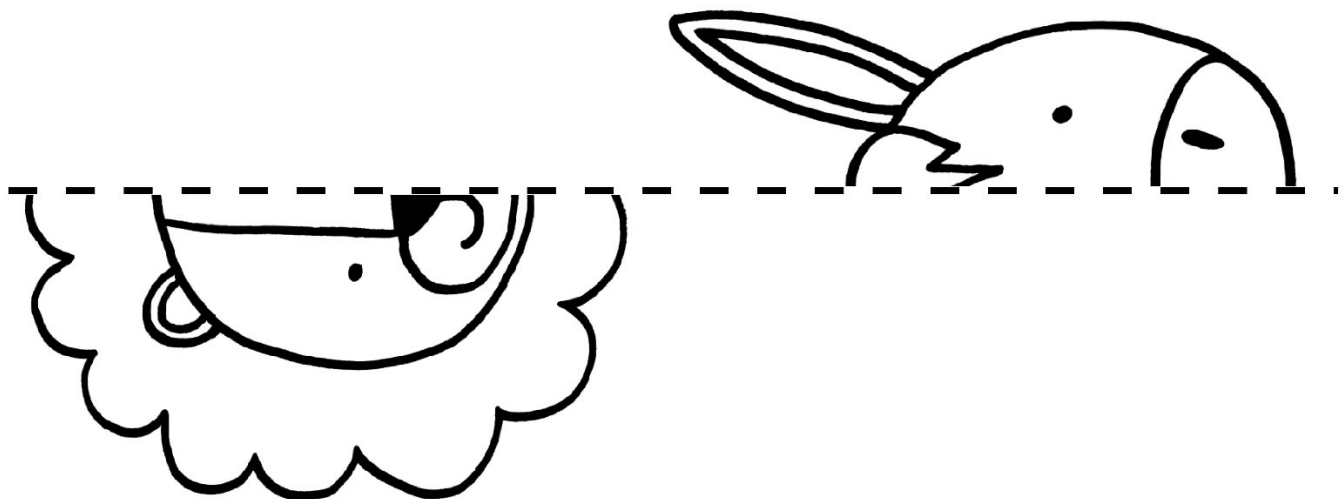

THESE WORKSHEETS HAVE BEEN CREATED AS A PRESENT FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO LIKE READING AND GOING TO THE LIBRARY. THIS COPY IS FOR FREE.

② Say who is hiding in the picture. Finish drawing the other halves of the animals and colour them in.

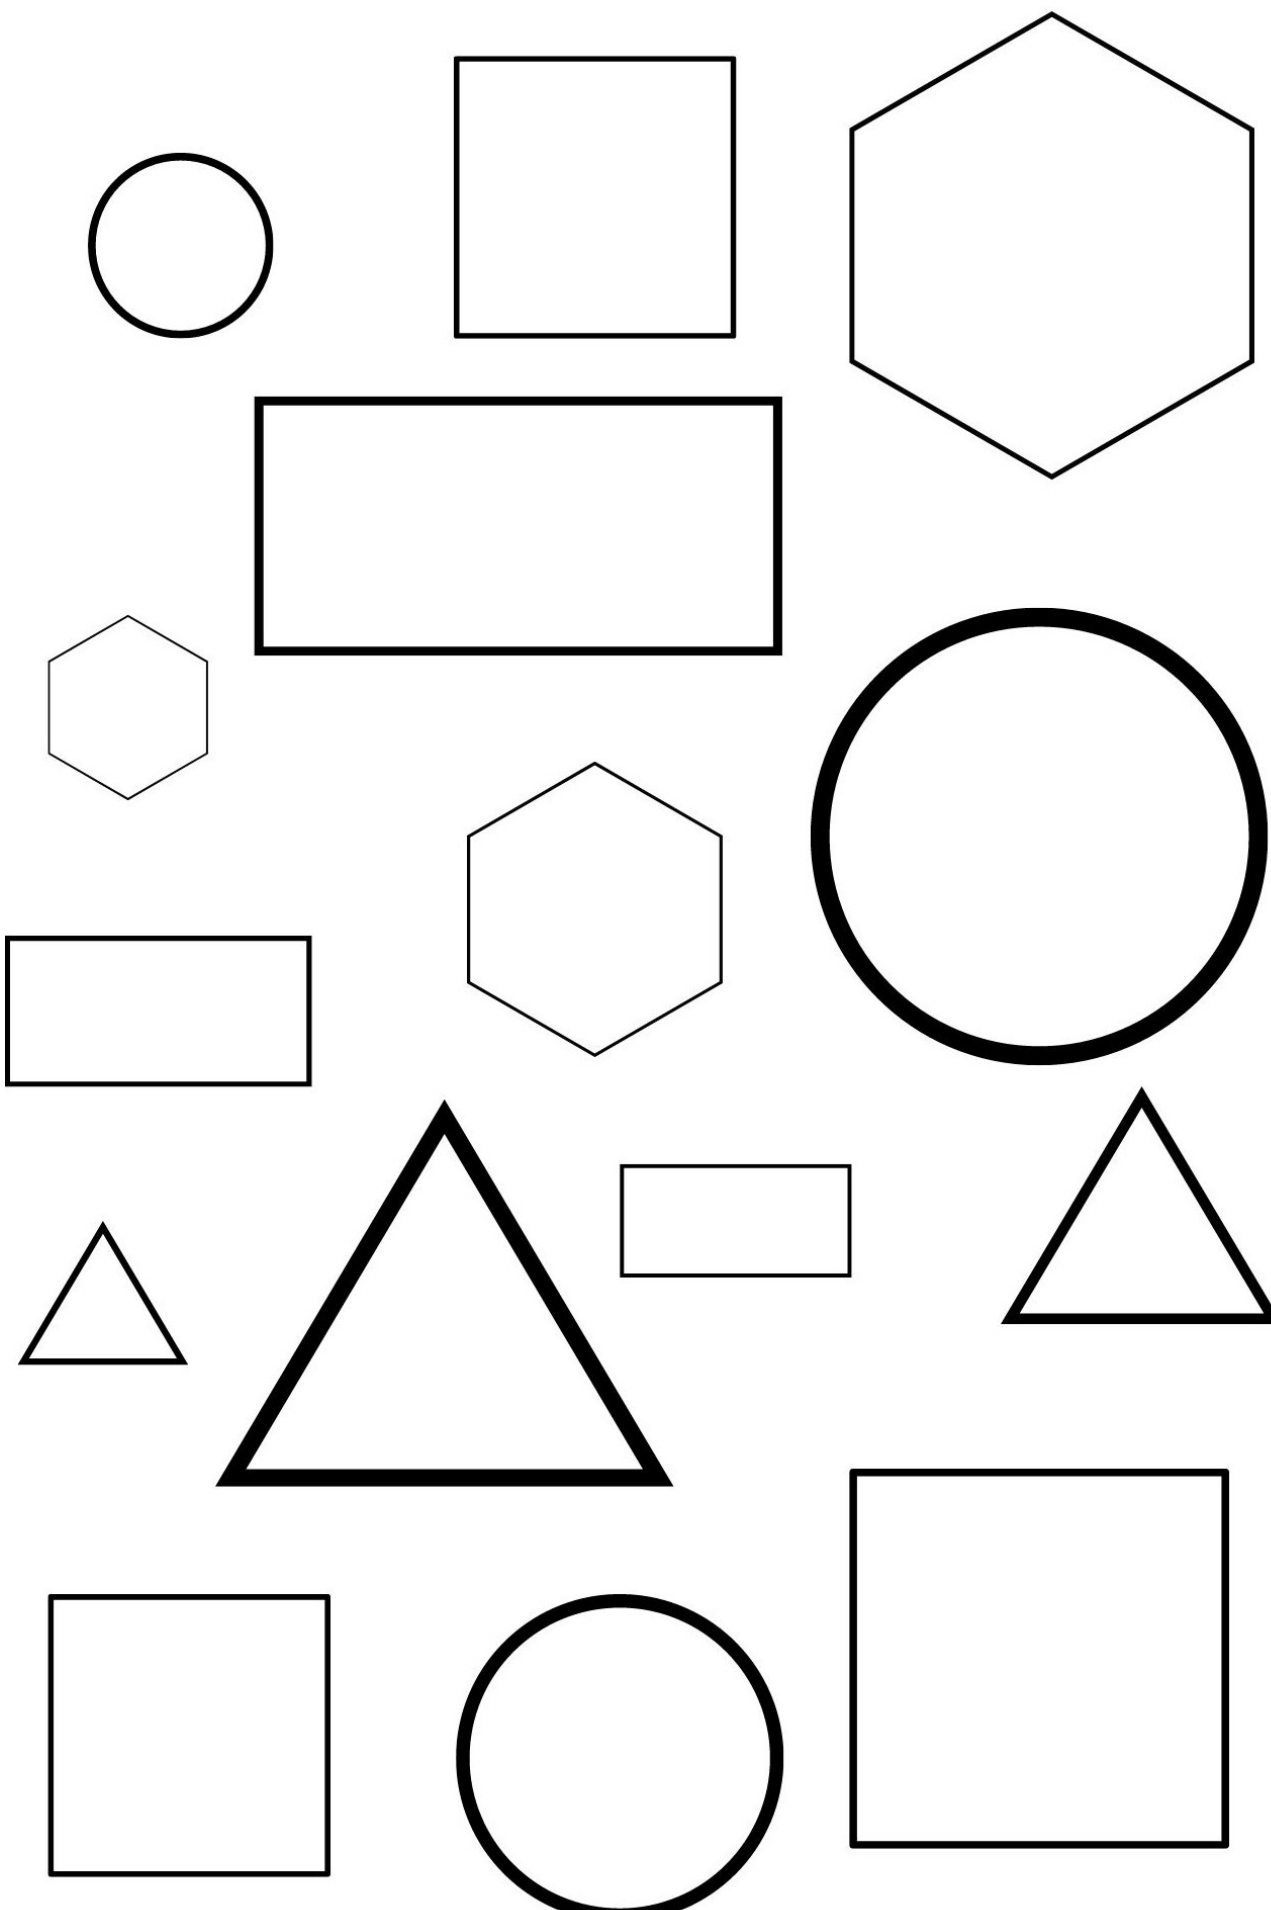

③ Find the groups of three things which go together. Colour the pictures in. You can also cut out the cards and put the groups together.

④ Colour in the native American with autumn colours. Do you know who it is?

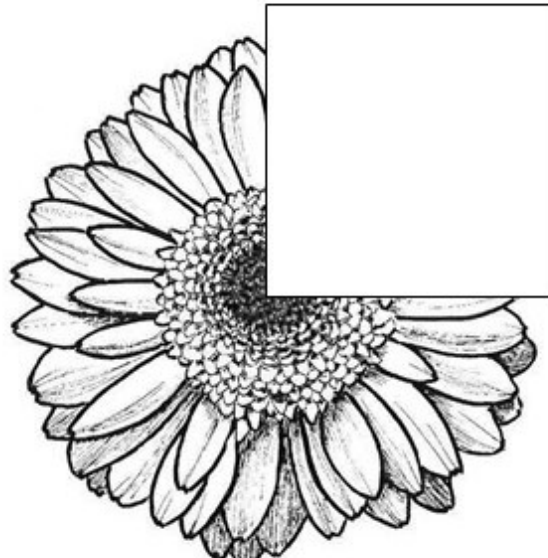

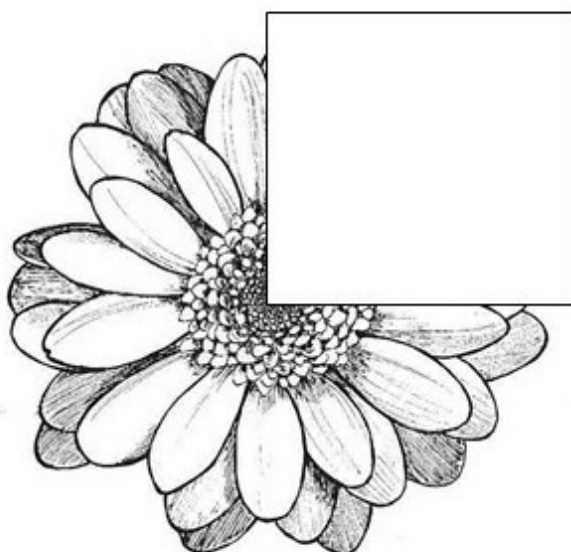

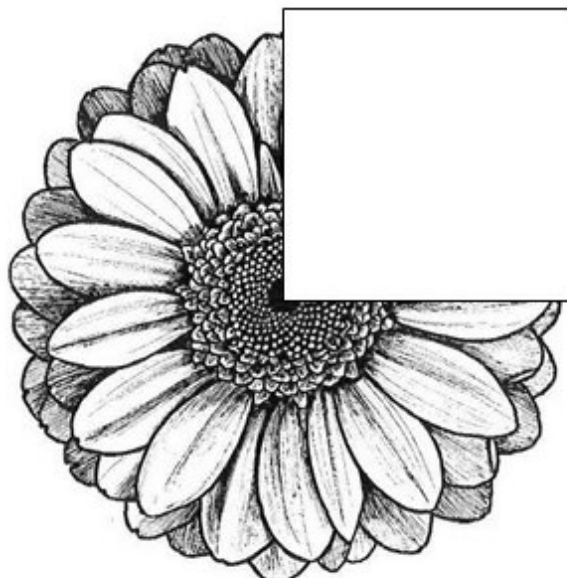

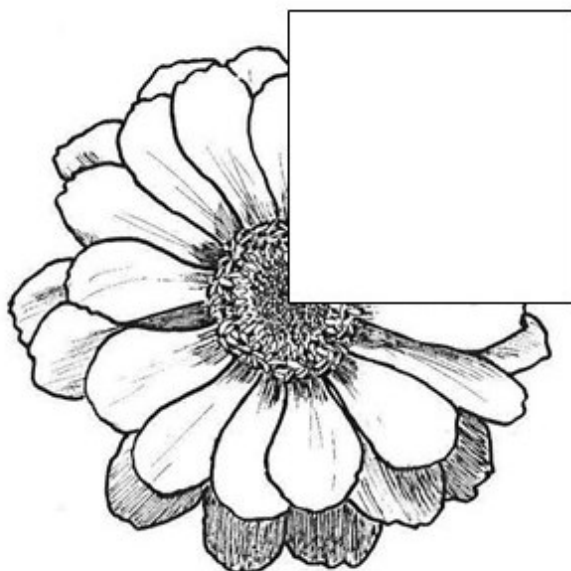

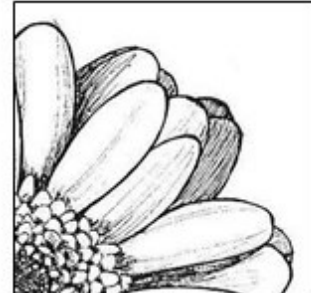

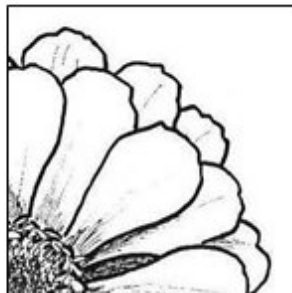

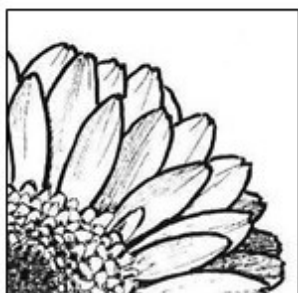

⑤ Colour in the shapes: the small ones in red, the bigger ones in blue, and the biggest ones in yellow. How many triangles are there?

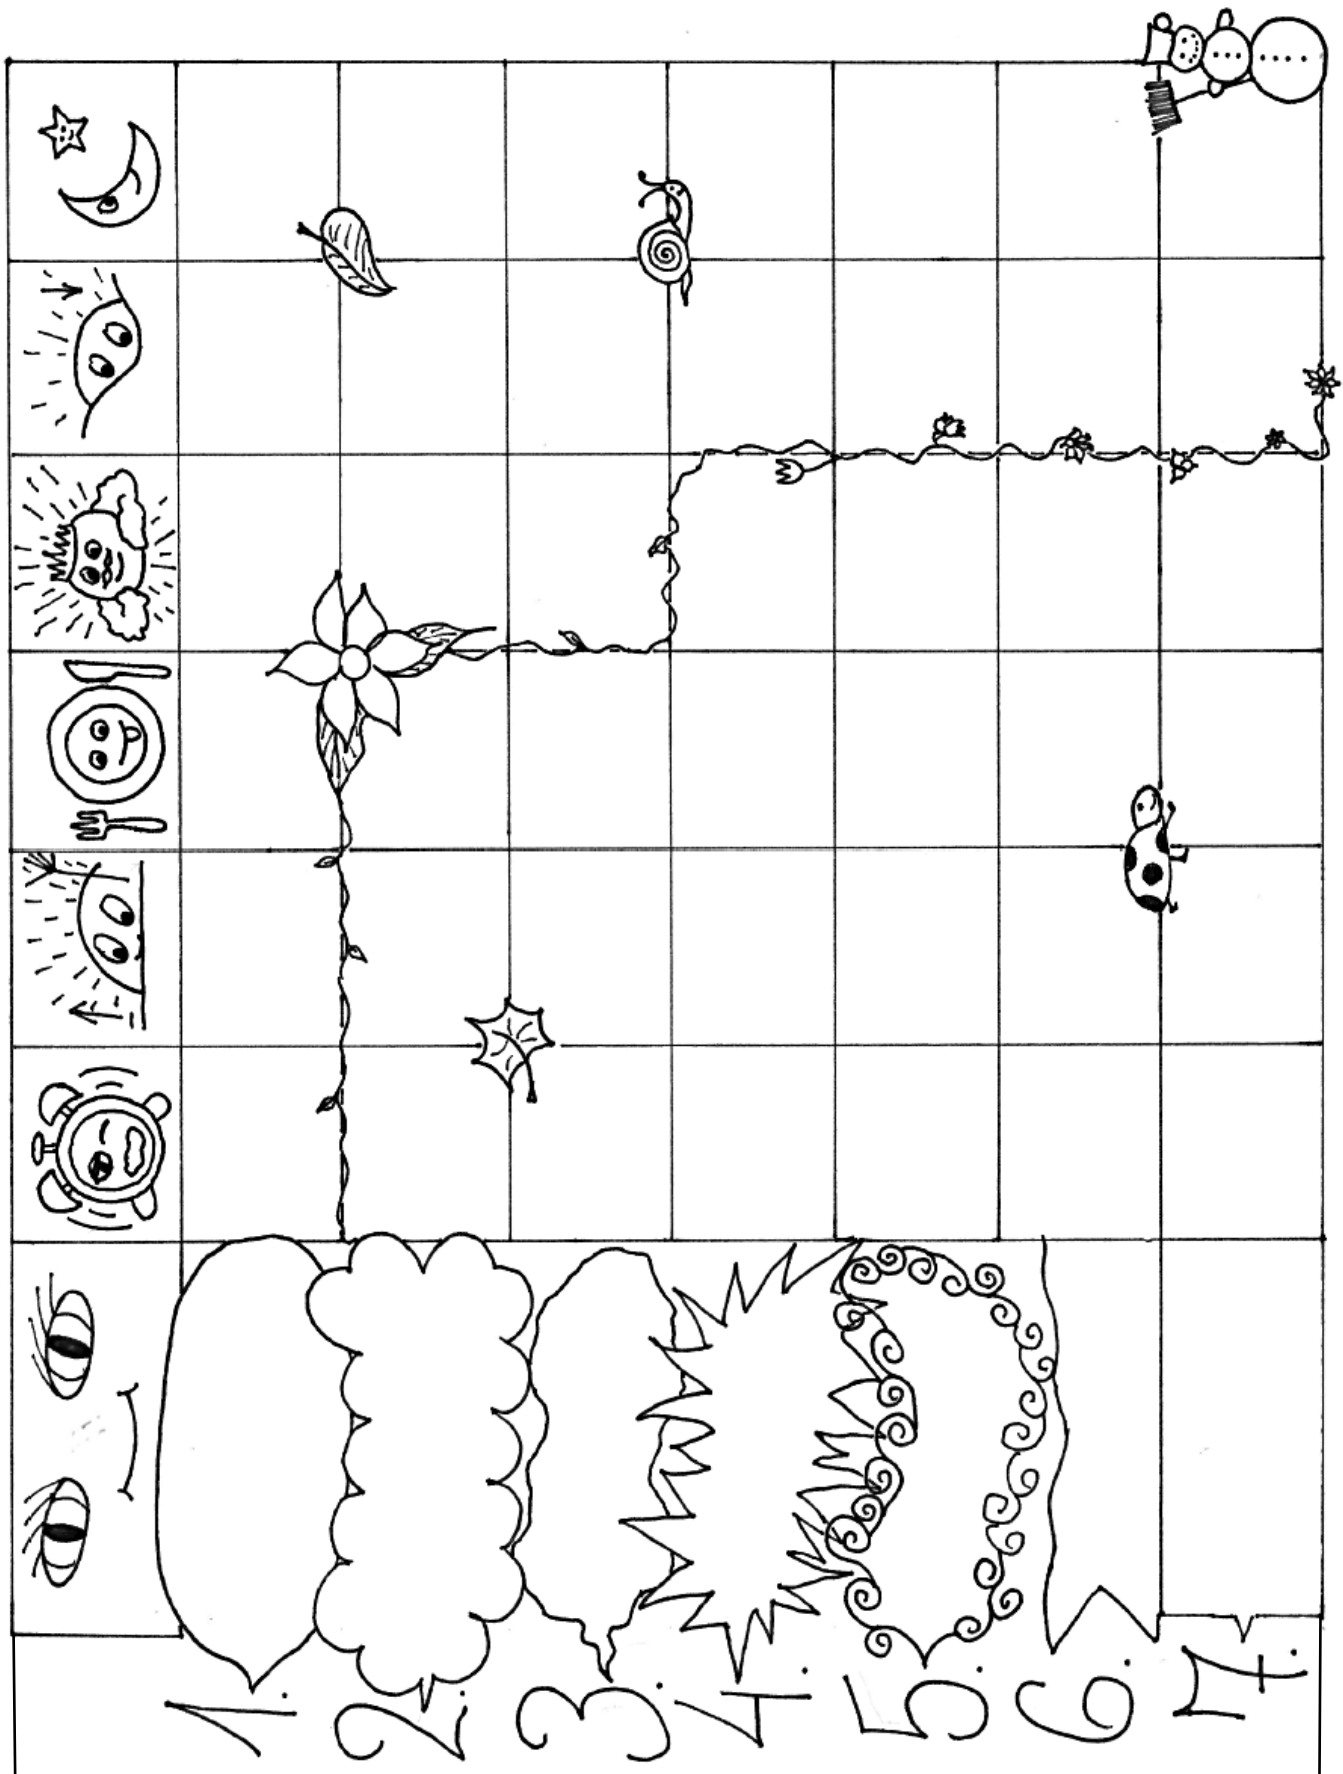

⑥ Find eight differences.

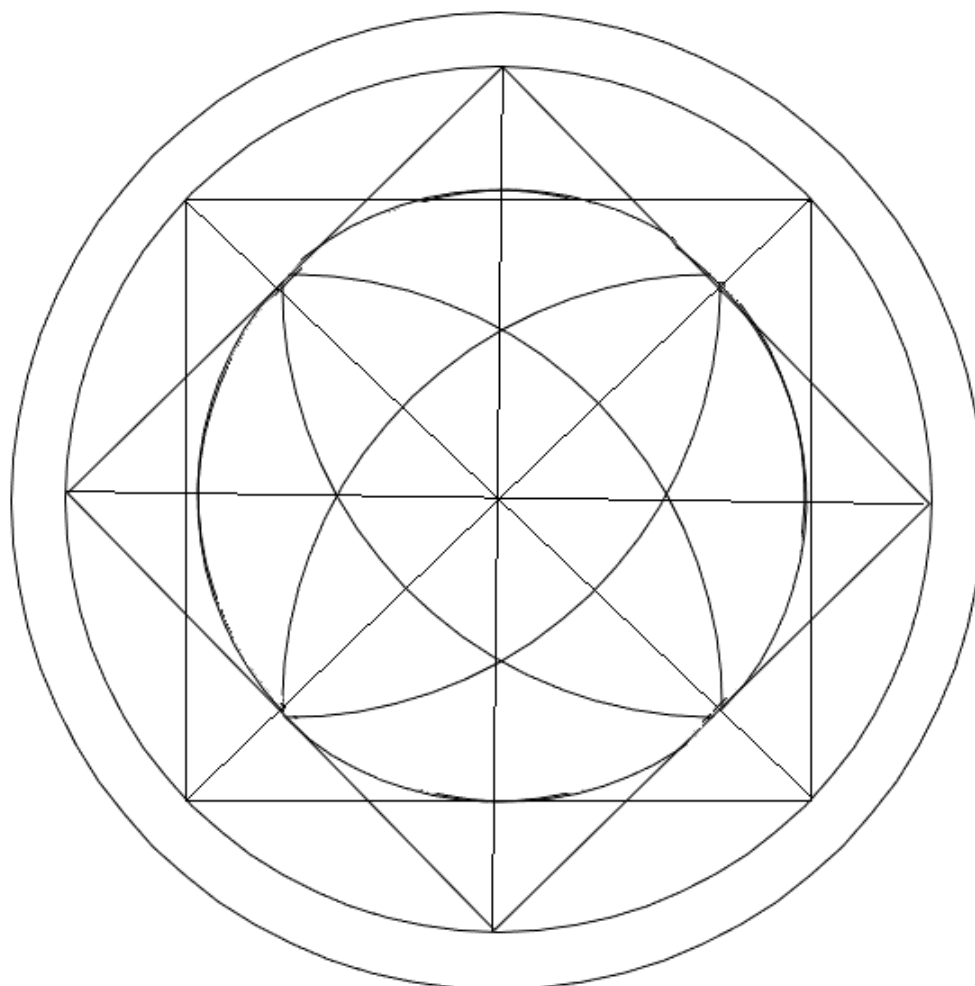

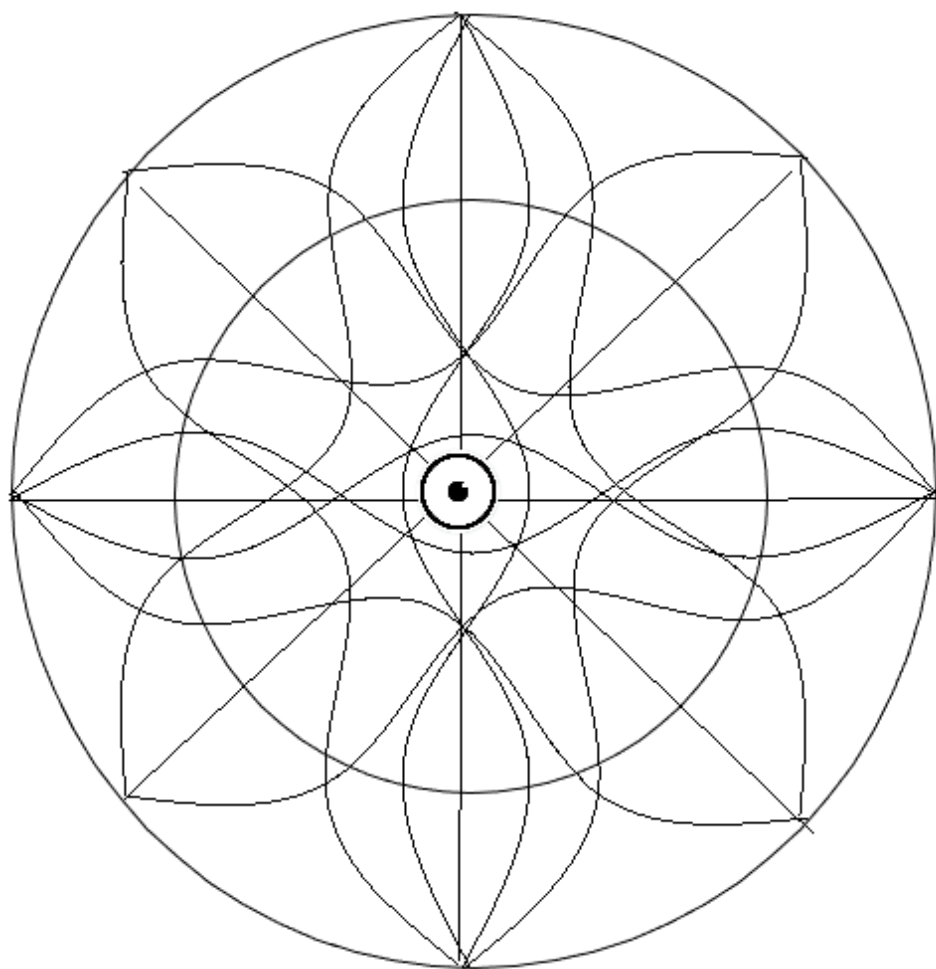

⑦ Complete the flowers in the picture with their correct part – cut out the squares and glue them to the correct flowers. After that, colour in the flowers. They are Gerberas, which are full of colours, so don't be afraid to use your imagination. You can also cut them out and make flower garlands for a party, for example, or use them to decorate the dining table.

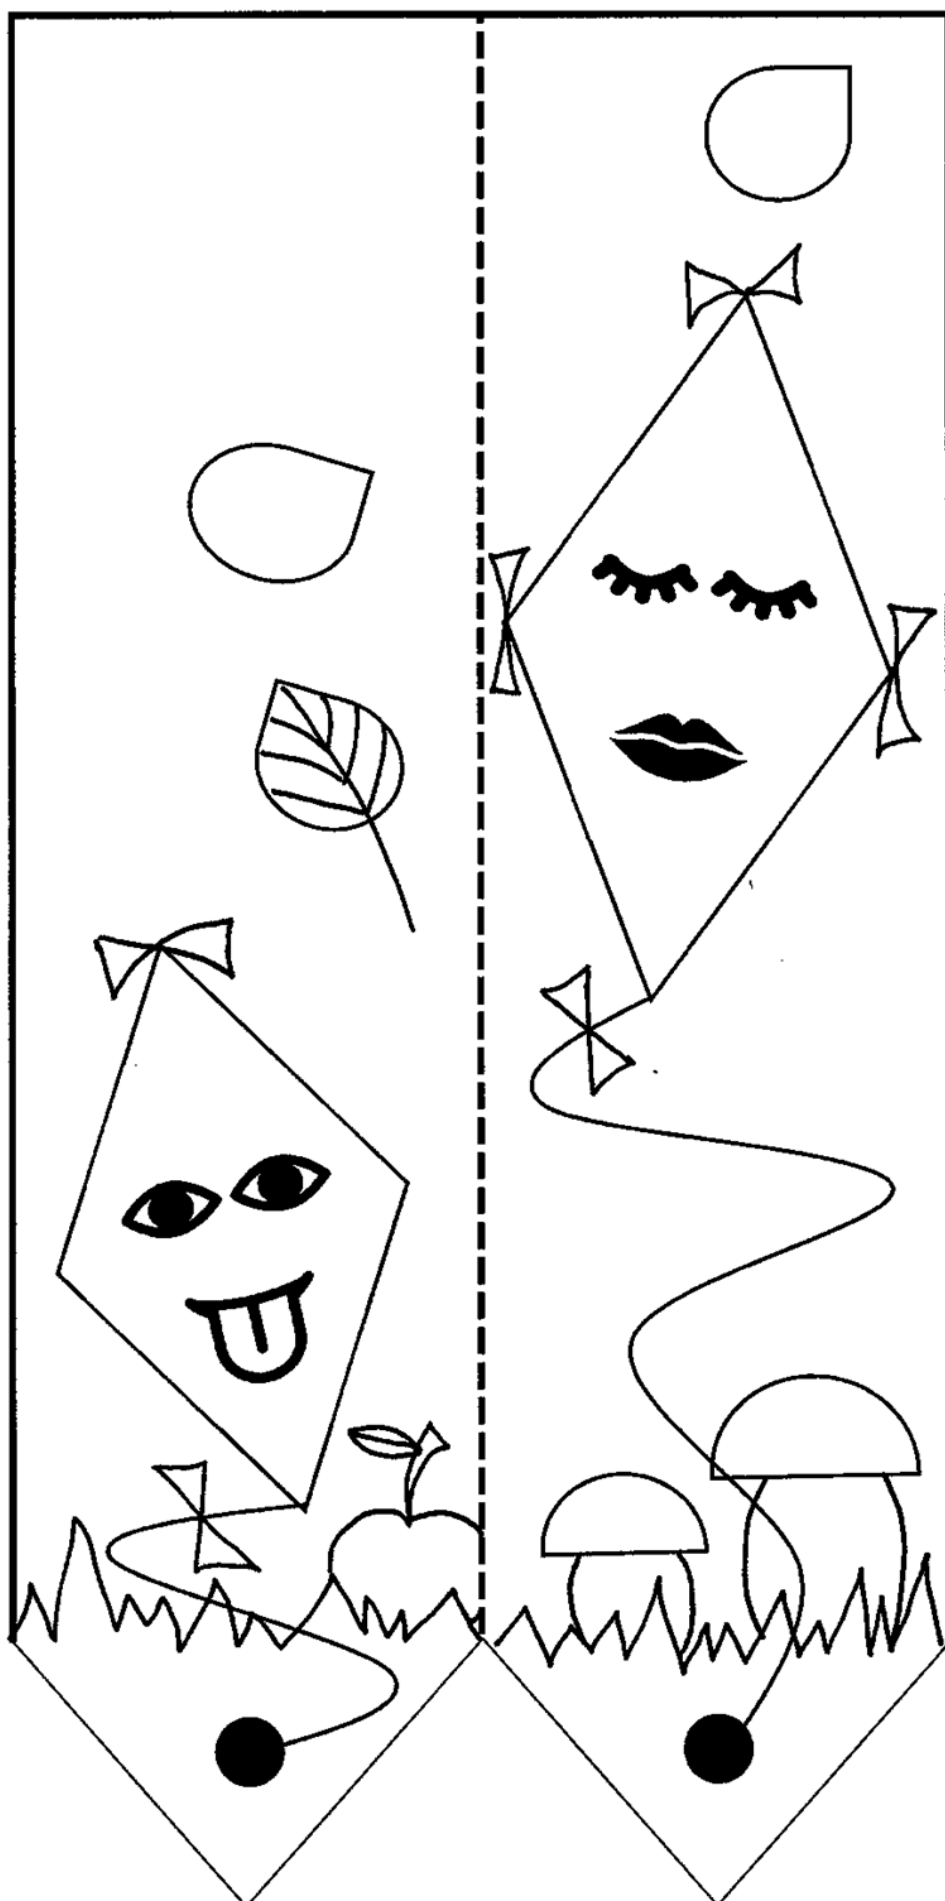

⑧ Make your weekly timetable. Print out the draft on a sturdy sheet of paper and cut it out along the outside line. In the boxes, next to the numbers, write down the days of the week and colour the whole line for each day with a light coloured pencil. Use seven different colours. Also, colour in the cheerful pictures and complete the boxes with your regular activities, which you do every week during the day. Put the timetable on your desk or pin it up on the notice board in your room.

⑨ Colour in the mandalas. Then, cut them out and hang them in the window.

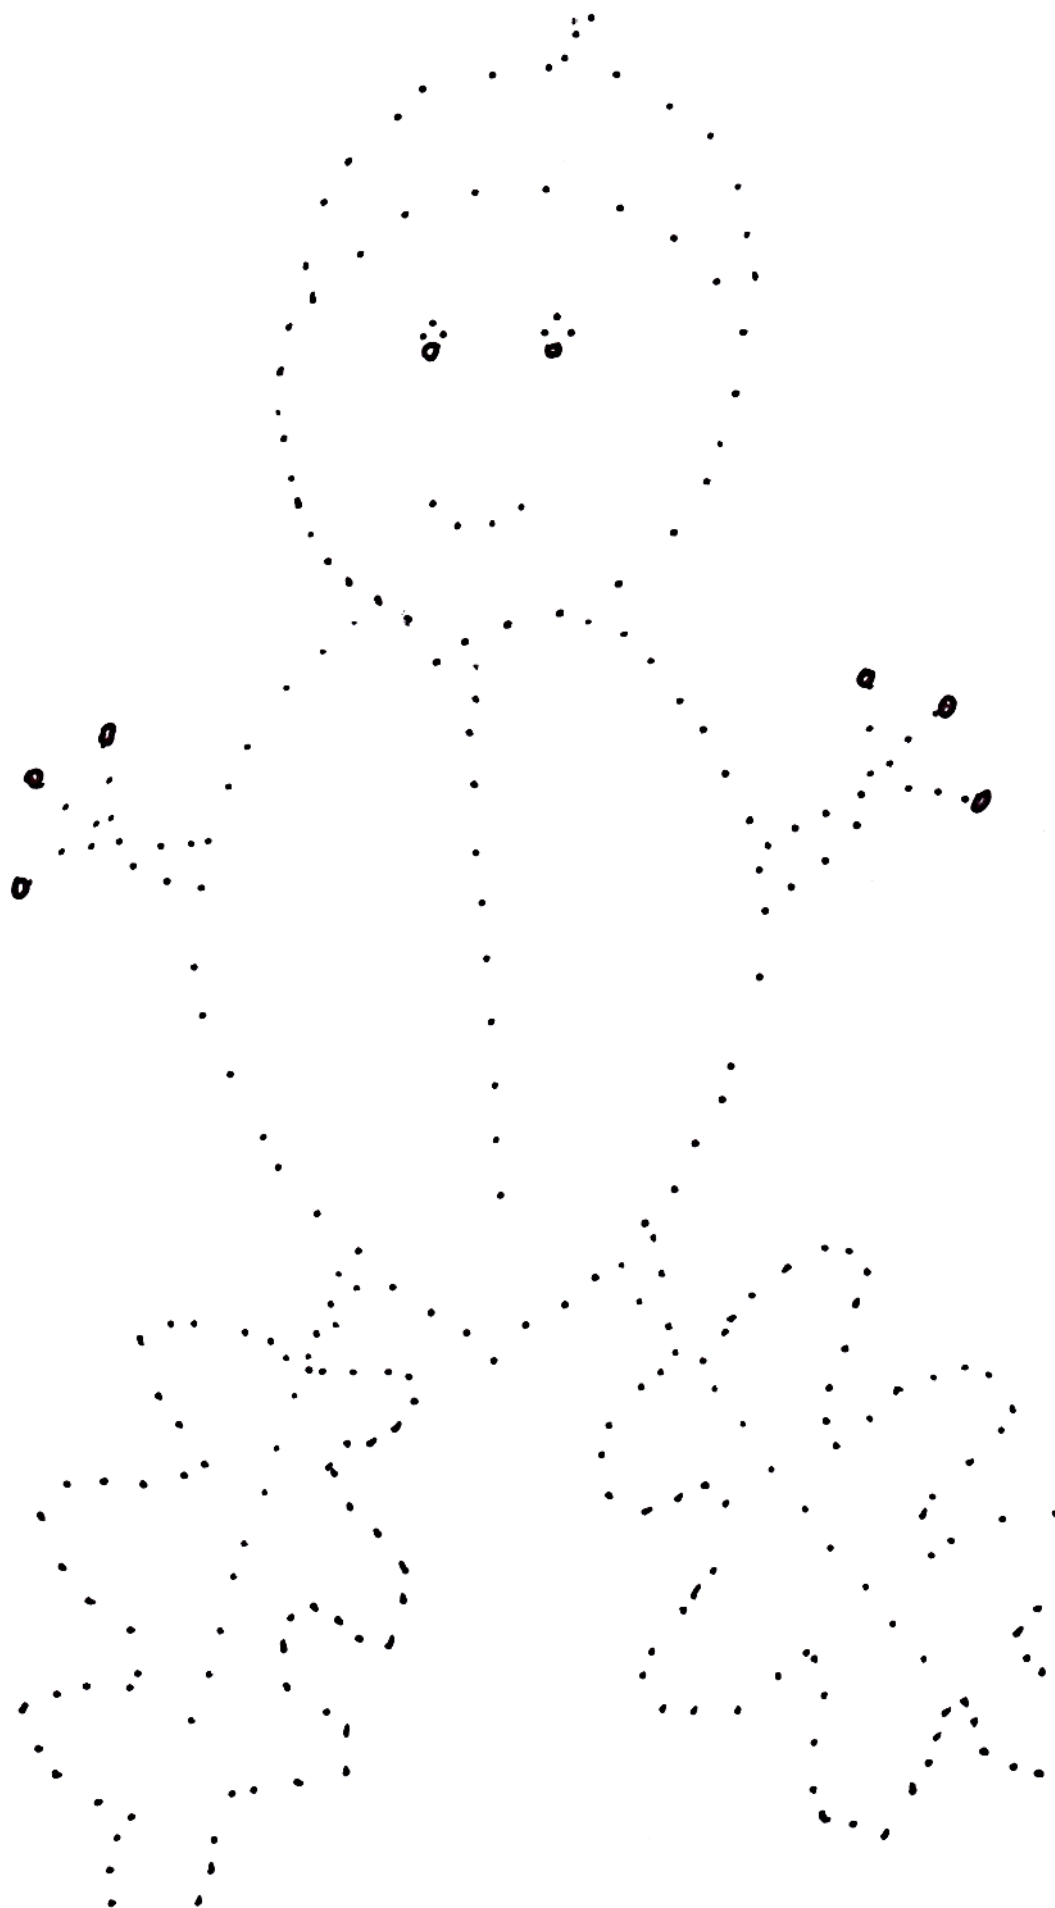

⑩ Make a bookmark for autumn reading. Finish drawing the tail bows for the dragons and draw more leaves in the sky. Colour in the whole picture, cut it out, fold along the dashed line, and glue the two halves together. Carefully, make a hole where the dot is and thread a tassel or a ribbon through it.

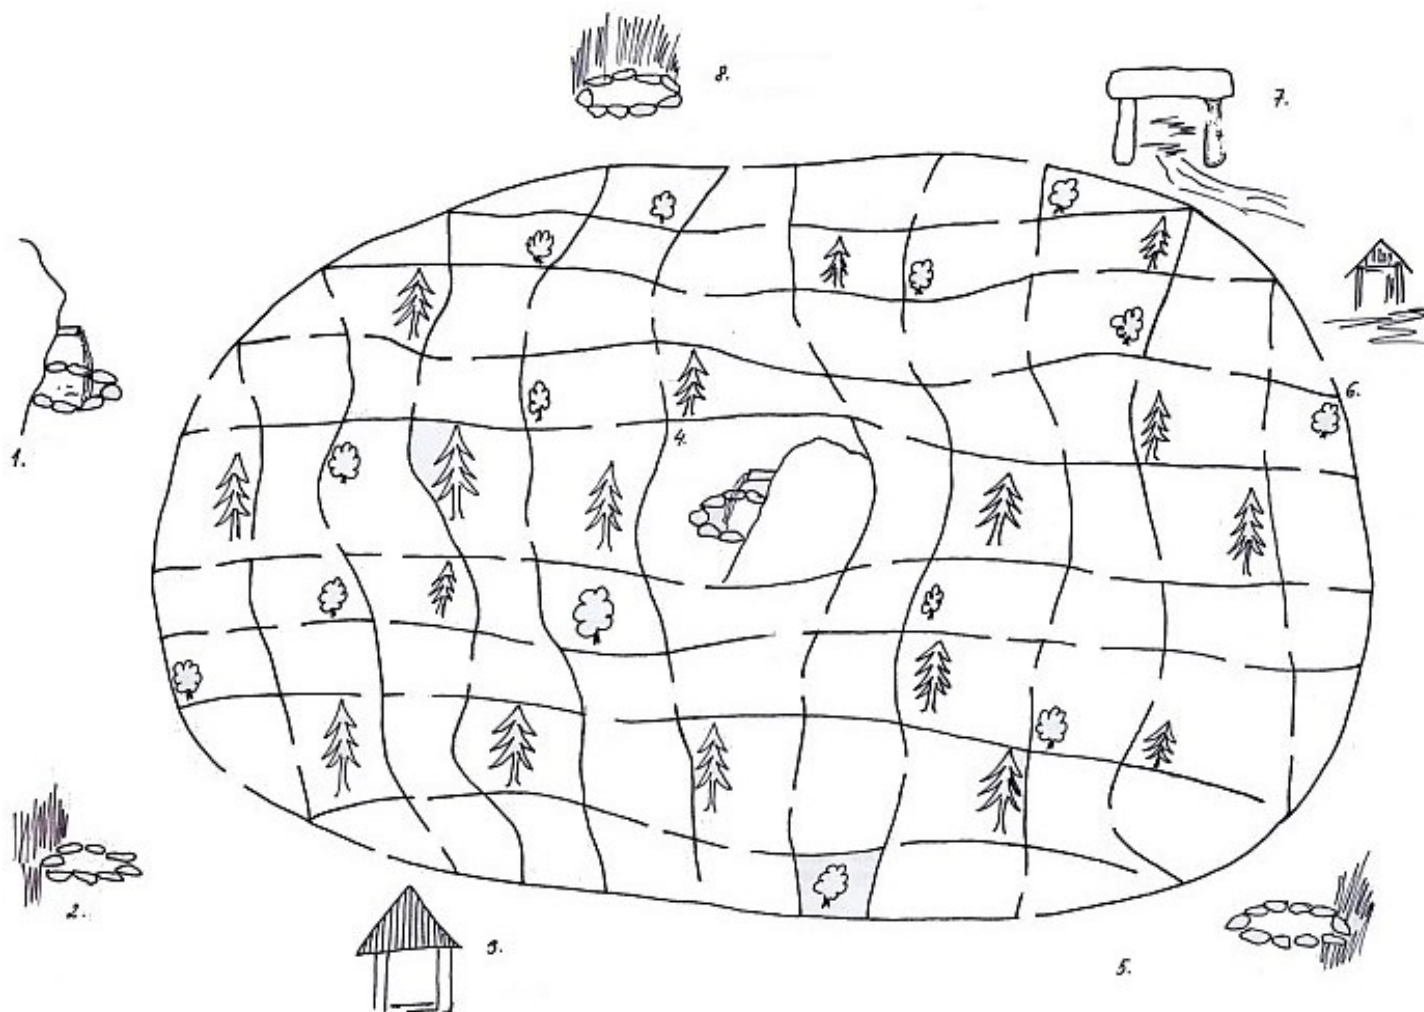

11 Match the school supplies with their correct shadow.

12 Draw a picture by matching the dots.

⑬ Go through the maze and match all the eight springs. You can actually find all these springs with their beautiful names in Vysočina (Czech Highlands) if you walk along the Nature Trail of Jinošov springs (Jinošovské studánky). The arrow on the map shows the place in the Czech Republic where you can find this trail. Do you know about a spring around where you live? Try to find out if it is marked on the national spring map.

⑭ Dress the scarecrow and stick it into a flower pot on the window sill. Colour in and carefully cut out all the clothes and the scarecrow. Glue the scarecrow to a wooden skewer and put on it the chosen fashion items with the help of the folded straps.

⑮ Try to name and colour in the autumn pictures on the big shell, which is a souvenir from our summer holidays. Draw some other autumn pictures in the empty spaces. Cut out the completed shell and give it to somebody to make them happy.
